

What's an ombud? Find out this October

September 30, 2019Sarah QuinnEvents, Faculty & Staff, Homepage, Students

Students, faculty and staff are invited to take part in a celebration of NIU's Office of the Ombudsperson's 50th anniversary and National Ombuds Day taking place Monday-Thursday, Oct. 7-10.

The following events celebrating the Office of the Ombudsperson's 50th anniversary and National Ombuds Day are set to take place in early October:

- Monday-Thursday, Oct. 7-10 (all day): Kindness Rocks display outside the Campus Grind at Holmes Student Center. Take one if you need one!
- Wednesday, Oct. 9, from 8 to 10 a.m.: Doughnuts and a Drawing: Join the Office of the Ombudsperson for doughnuts and sign up for an Ombuds Day basket drawing in the Holmes Student Center lobby.
- Thursday, Oct. 10, from 8 to 10:30 a.m.: Coffee with Klaper: Join University Ombudsperson Sarah Klaper, Gay Campbell and Hafsa Jamalvi for coffee, conversation and cinnamon rolls to start the day at Holmes Student Center, 601.
- Thursday, Oct. 10, at 11 a.m.: Drawing results for the basket revealed on Twitter.