ROY COOPER
GOVERNOR

OMBUDS DAY

2020

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, in 2017, the American Bar Association Section of Dispute Resolution declared the second Thursday of October as Ombuds Day to recognize the value of providing informal and confidential channels for addressing organizational and workplace issues; and

WHEREAS, ombuds, also referred to as ombudspersons or ombudsmen, are impartial and independent conflict management professionals who address individual and systemic concerns such as litigation, grievances, and complaints; and

WHEREAS, ombudspersons work in a wide variety of organizations within the State of North Carolina including universities, governmental agencies, private enterprises, and more; and

WHEREAS, these professionals utilize various resolution methods and provide powerful risk management resources for the institutions they serve; and

WHEREAS, during these difficult times, where many people are facing unprecedented and complicated challenges, the role of ombuds are more valuable than ever; and

WHEREAS, recognition of this day is an opportunity to increase awareness and understanding of the profession, highlight the value of ombuds, and encourage the use of ombuds programs; and

WHEREAS, the people of North Carolina are encouraged to learn more about the ombuds profession and to make use of these essential services as needed;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, ROY COOPER, Governor of the State of North Carolina, do hereby proclaim October 8, 2020, as “OMBUDS DAY” in North Carolina, and commend its observance to all citizens.

Roy Cooper
Governor

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of North Carolina at the Capitol in Raleigh this thirtieth day of September in the year of our Lord two thousand and twenty and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred and forty-fifth.
